Remarks:

Attached is a letter addressed to the Director, Bureau of the Budget, for the signature of the Comptroller. OGC has reviewed the relevant statutes and determined that the only information collected by the Office of Personnel, which fulfills the criteria set forth in BOB Bulletin No. 61-3 and would not conflict with the DCI's responsibility under section 6 of the CIA act, is the Wyatt contract for actuarial service. Col. White and Mr. Houston have concluded that the mere fact the contract is on unvouchered funds is not sufficient reason to withhold the information since the contract is unclassified and in the name of C.I.A.
